LAS PALMAS, SPAIN- Last July 28, 2008, Satguru Swami Bhagat Prakash Maharaj and his Sant Mandli were welcomed at Infecar, Spain. Hundreds of premis were gathered for the flag hoisting ceremony "jhalus" and were eagerly awaiting the arrival of Saijin.

Saijin arrived to the sound of cheering by the Premis who were ecstatic about the arrival of their master. Satguru Maharaj then paid obeisance to the murtis of the gurus of the Prem Prakash Mandal. The devotees danced and sang dhunis to praise the heavens in order to commence the beginning of the Spain Mela, 2008.

Premis were dressed up as Krishna, Ram, Sita, etc. signifying the presence of the Gods for this auspicious event.

A procession took place with Saijin leading the followers to the main hall. There was a lot of merrymaking including dhandiya as followers lovingly praised the Lord for his glory. There

There was an activity held in which Premis have to write the meaning and significance of the mantra, "SATNAM SAKHI" in their lives. Swamiji then proceeded to go to the board to view the display of the work of many premis.

Beautiful huts with murtis of the Gurus of the Panth were displayed along with a bhajan that the Guru composed. Individuals could visit the various huts and pay obeisance to the masters.
