

OM SHREE SATNAM SAKHI

The first thought that comes to our mind when we think about the festival HOLI is COLORS!!!

This Holi, we Prempakashi's are going to Amrapur Dham to play Holi with Sai Teonram 😊😊😊

It is said that the tradition of playing colors on Holi originated from the 'leela' of Radha and Krishna. As Krishna was always jealous of Radha's fair complexion, he teasingly colored Radha's face with color. In a mischievous mood, Radha also ran behind him badly annoyed and shouting. This was how the tradition of applying color came in being and is religiously followed till date. People of Mathura and Vrindavan associate Holi with the divine love of Krishna and Radha. The world knows only of Radha as Krishna's, and Krishna as Radha's. How many of us would even know the names of His wives, but is there any one of us who has not marveled at the immortal love story of Radha-Krishna? The name of Krishna is always taken with that of Radha and that of Radha with Krishna. Krishna is incomplete without Radha, and Radha without Krishna, in spite of the fact that they were not united in divine marriage. Generations have venerated Radha with the same devotion as they have for Krishna. Any temple of Krishna will have Radha by His side!

Listen carefully to what Swami Teonram has to say about this festival....

Santo ke sang holi khelo, pivo Prem pyala re,

Janke pivot hoye bahaari, din-din badati jaye khumari, hove man matiwala re

Shradha ki tum kesar kariye, itar ambir shresht gun dhariye, laao gyan gulala re

Kahe Teon yeh holi gaaye, Brahmanand mein viriti milaye paayo anand vishaala re!

So come lets get colored in the beautiful colors of DIVINE LOVE...SAI PLEASE BLESS US...
WE WANT TO BE YOUR RADHA ... YOU OUR KRISHNA

ABODE OF LOVE = AMRAPUR DHAM (OUR VRINDAVAN)
PREM KA PRAKASH = SWAMI TEONRAM (OUR KRISHNA)

Next time when you think of this festival ...think...LOVE!!!
