

Om Satnam Sakhi!

I would like you to listen to a true story about Mathuradas' son from Gwalior

Mathuradas' son was operated on his throat but he didn't survive and died during the operation . His father then desperately proceeded to meet Sai Sarvanand who at that time, was currently in Gwalior for a visit. Upon seeing Satguru Swami Sarvanand, tears felt from his eyes. Swamiji inquired as to why he started crying. After hearing the entire story of Mathuradas, Swamiji asked him not to worry as he then proceeded to take some water from his "chipi" (karmandal) and instructed Mathuradas to give the water to his son. He then rushed to the site where his son was. Doctors present reminded him that his son was dead and there was nothing that could be done now. However, Mathuradas proceeded to put some water in his son's mouth. To everyone's surprise, the boy resurrected as water was poured to his mouth. This is just one of the many examples of miracles done by Satguru Swami Sarvanand. Mathuradas' son still resides in Gwalior til this date.
