Dhuni: Govind hare gopal hare, Mere Satguru Deen Dayal hare Doha: Sant Guru Parmatmaa Sache sangi jaan
Kahe Teoon in teen se karle prem sujaan

Saints, spiritual master and God are our true companions, Says Teonram keep affection towards these three.

Bhajan: Mukhe Jogi tha yaad pawan, jin naam jo daan dino ,se swami shaal milan
1. Jite jogiun kaya dera, ute khub mataa mera, tin jogiun dhaaraa se, thiyun mariyun kin suhan.

Meaning: I keep remembering the yogi, who gave me or bestowed on me the blessing of naam, I hope I meet them soon.

1. Where the jogis established their temples, there many feasts take place, but without their presence those places don't seem the same.

Let say satnam sakhi. We remember those maha purush or saints, so guru maharaj has written in this spiritual song, that the spiritual master who bestows on us the gift of naam, who shows us the way to accross this wordly ocean, his remembrance are sweet and brings satisfaction to our mind but the remembrance of the world brings sorrows and the mind is troubled by sorrows and pains. But the anecdotes of our Guru's life and his life history or biography makes our mind peaceful. In this world the pains and sorrows are always present, to liberate our selves from them we have the naam. The stories about saints and Mahatmas who come to this world to guide us by their knowledgeable lectures shows the way to God realization.
So Guru Maharaj has written in his ambrosial world.

Bhajan:

2) Bole anbhav ji boli, dari dil ji jin kholi, tin
swami ja mukhe shal darshan segh thiyan

Meaning:

By giving us lectures fuel of knowledge, they open the door of our heart which is closed, I hope to obtain the darshan of such saints promptly.

Bhajan:

3) Jin jogiun jagaayo, hari rang sachho laayo
tin jogiun khe saare, tha neran naar vahan

Meaning:

Those yogi's who woke me up and blessed me with naam, remembering them I weep.

By giving us spiritual lectures, they opened the door of my heart, they removed the darkness and brightened our hearts with knowledge. Remembering those saints who have woken us up from the sleep of illusions and have blessed us with the gift of naam to help clean the impurities of the mind. So keeping in mind the teachings of Saints we should improve our living. The outside darshan or the outside acquaintane is good, but the inside darshan is more fruitful. The outside meeting is for a short time, but when you have the presence of your Guru Maharaj inside your heart it is permanent, so lets pray:

Bhajan:

Uhe dih kade inda, kare maher angar inda,
Kahe teoon darsh dei , shal mukhe pehenjo kan

Meaning:

When will those days come again, when they will bless me by their presence .
Says Teonram may they come and bless me by accepting me.
So when will those days come ,that they will bless me by their presence , this means that when will they be present in my heart, where they will stay forever and not be seperated from me even for a minute.
So this will happen when we constantly chant the name and meditate.
So let us ask for this so lets pray at his lotus feet.

Bhajan: Tum hi satguru tum pit mata ,tum hi hari har tum hi vidhaata
Hum hai bikhari, tum ho data, bar bar lakh var namami

Meaning: You are my spiritual master, you are my mother and father you are god and written of my destiny. We are beggers, you are the giver, once and once again I bow to you glories to Teonram, bless us Oh Lord.

Ardas: Jo jan aa Guru Sharan mein, baith kare ardaas, Kahe Teoon tis das ki pure kar hi aas, dukh sarv hi dur ho, lage na yam ki traas, karj hovan raas, sanshay koi na rahe

Lets Say Sanatan Dharam ki jai, May Satguru Maharaj shower his blessings on all the devotees who participate in the satsang on internet every month, Bolo Gurudev Bhagwan ki Jai
