

Ram naam ratte raho jab lag ghat mein pran, kabhi to Din Dayal ke bhanak padegi kan

Siya Ram Lakhan ghar aayen hain, Ayodhya mein anand chaye hain....

Keep on chanting the name of the Lord, one day he will surely answer your prayers. He listens daily but our mind is not pure and clean. We sometimes feel dejected that we don't see the fruits of our efforts but we don't remember how much Karmic debt we have accumulated. The efforts we put in performing good deeds, satsang and 'naam jaap' will be set-off against the karmic debt in our account. Only then we will see a credit in our account. So keep on doing your deeds, chanting the name of the Lord, gradually our debts will diminish and we start seeing a credit in our account. For example if power is available but no gadgets like tubes and bulbs are there, there will be no electricity similarly we need to prepare ourselves to obtain the blessings showered by the Lord.

As the pious occasion of Diwali is celebrated with burning lamps, it is also essential to enlighten ourselves from within by the invaluable knowledge being imparted to us. As Ram returned to Ayodhya on this holy day, you also attempt to recognize the real 'Atam Ram' within you.

Gyan jo diyo baar gurumukh, hardam pehnje man mandir mein...

There is not a minuscule of sorrow within us. It is only because of ignorance that we experience unhappiness and thus we need to get rid of the darkness within us by burning the light of knowledge within us. We are a part of the Almighty full of love and happiness. The property of the 'whole' is similar to the property of the 'part of the whole' for eg cubes of ice will have the same property of coolness as a huge chunk of ice. The only thing we need to do is to pay attention. Wake up and recognize the blessings of God within you. Get the enlightenment within you.

Gaflat mein na guzar manra.....

Ask Gurudev on this day for his 'kripa', 'asisa' and 'meher', as it is extremely essential to sail across this ocean of fear. Along with our efforts we need their blessings. Get the awareness in your lives. Age, education, success, recognition and strength can be obtained with the blessing of our elders so make efforts to win the same and pray in the Lotus holy feet of Gurumaharaj

HAPPY DIWALI AND A PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR!!!
